June 13, 2018, New York, NY – UNTITLED, Art is pleased to announce AGUAS, the artist-run curatorial platform founded by artist Rodrigue Mouchez, will be guest curator of the seventh edition of Untitled Art, Miami Beach. AGUAS' artist-focused curatorial approach and distinct international perspective on contemporary art practices, reflects Untitled's commitment as an international curated fair to keep artists and collaboration as its central focus.

AGUAS will work together with Untitled Art's Executive Director, Manuela Mozo and Artistic Director, Omar Lopez-Chahoud, to curate a selection of international galleries and develop a series of special artist projects that will be integrated throughout the fair.

"I am thrilled that AGUAS, an artist-run curatorial platform will join us for the seventh edition of the fair," states Manuela Mozo, Untitled Art's Executive Director, "When considering a curatorial guest for Untitled Art, Miami Beach I wanted to incorporate the collaborative energy that has recently surfaced in the art world. Collaborations such as the international gallery exchange of Condo; Ruberta the collaborative exhibition space in Glendale, CA; gallery timeshares by VACATION in New York; and the non-profit exhibition spaces of JOAN in Los Angeles all reflect a spirit of generosity, innovation and the necessity to address some of the current issues facing artists and galleries. These inspiring models led us to our own collaboration with AGUAS."

AGUAS aims to forge a meaningful dialogue between artists from Europe and Latin America through exhibitions, talks, and publications. Its intent is to push forward logics of collaboration and transparency between art practices and artists.

"AGUAS' projects are initiated by artists and focus more on their processes than on the commercial value of the works, considering the production of the works and the exhibition as a whole," remarks Rodrigue Mouchez, "It is a great opportunity for a platform such as AGUAS to be a part of the seventh edition of Untitled Art, Miami Beach."

The seventh edition of Untitled Art, Miami Beach will take place December 5 - 9, 2018 on the beach at Ocean Drive and 12th Street in Miami Beach.
