For Immediate Release:

Untitled, Miami Beach, 2015
Announces
Artsource Consulting
as Official Art Advisor

Miami Beach, FL, November 19, 2015

Untitled, Miami Beach, 2015 is pleased to announce Artsource Consulting as the official art advisors of the fair's fourth edition. As part of its mandate to continue to provide a high-quality art fair experience, Untitled has aligned with Artsource Consulting to offer thematic tours and private consultation to Untitled's VIPs throughout the fair.

Artsource Consulting is a multidisciplinary, San Francisco-based art advisory company founded in 1994. The consulting firm specializes in developing and implementing art programs for private collectors, public entities and businesses worldwide. Artsource Consulting's philosophy is to guide their clients in creating inspired private and public spaces by acquiring quality fine art.

"As consultants we have attended art fairs around the world and found Untitled, Miami Beach, to be an exciting and reliable venue for new discoveries, and familiar exhibitors who present great work." States Jody Brunk Knowlton Principal and Co_Founder of Artsource Consulting,

"We are thrilled to partner with Untitled, Miami Beach in an effort to deepen the collectors engagement with exhibitors and their artists. Our expertise will offer VIPs a more focused and in-depth fair experience".

As part of Untitled, Miami Beach's VIP program, Artsource Consulting will be conducting a series thematic tours that focus on common themes found throughout works on view at the fair. The consultants have extensively researched each exhibitor's booth as well as their gallery programs, and developed four distinct tours: Experimental Process Photography, Formalism, Alternative Materials, and Visual Language. Tours are open and available to register for VIPs.

Artsource Consulting's 20+ year history as professional consultants developing private, corporate and institutional collections makes them a valuable resource to Untitled, Miami Beach.
